Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Some Early Musical Recollections of G. Haddock For any defects in literary style in my Recollections I claim my readers kind indulgence; also, I cannot always vouch for exact dates, as it has been my custom to keep very few programmes or press-notices. Several letters from artists I find, after all these years, still in my possession, but scores, from time to time, have been annexed by autograph collectors. From those I still have, I may have occasion to quote. It is possible that there may be many little inaccuracies in one's recollections, which date back three - quarters of a century, as one's memory, at times, is not infallible. Indeed, it was never my intention to put my thoughts to paper; but it has been my good fortune, throughout a long life, to be the participator - either as principal or otherwise - in so many events which have made musical history, that I have relented. The prime movers in these have been artists of exceptional calibre, who have left on everything they touched an indelible mark. In speaking of them to the present generation, I have, at last, somewhat reluctantly, given way to frequent solicitations.
