*This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: .the younger men are inclined to designate as peculiarly the quality of their elders. Then the earnest seeker for growth must study the beautiful in all its manifestations, for beauty is a fundamental necessity of good architecture. I do not mean merely the beauty which finds expression in stone and brick, and iron and brass, but also the beauty which lingers round the setting sun, which paints the lily or adorns the rose, which gives its subtle charm to Rosetti s poems, or crowns with glory the canvas of Chavannes. The subtle, aesthetic sense which makes life enjoyable, the beauty of form, of face, of thought and action, all reflect directly upon the beauty of architecture, and the man who is keenly alive to the one is most apt to bring out the other in his work. And still in the line of studying the beautiful, we cannot afford to neglect the exhibitions of paintings and drawings which every year are becoming more frequent among us. We cannot miss one of them without loss. It is not such a very far call from Simons or Monet to quarter-scale drawings, though the connection is often missed and the correlation of ideas not appreciated. An honest attempt in any department of art can be studied to advantage until it awaken a responsive echo in the architect, and thereby his horizon is enlarged, his appreciation intensified, and his own art the better understood. Architecture is so essentially imaginative in...
