This well known saying was coined during the Albigensian Crusade in the early 1200s. This book takes place during that crusade's genocidal invasion of Beziers. This is a BDSM oriented account of how a comparatively very small group of people, specifically sexually attractive women, survived the Bezier genocide in the early 1200s which occurred largely in southern France. (Yes there were a number of crusades in Europe.) The knights of this historically accurate crusade were promised a large share of the plunder, that didn't work as planned so they decided that the more attractive women of this huge conquered city would fetch a fair profit as sex slaves, domestic servants, concubines or even wives. The knights accepted the religious requirement that the women be beaten in order to exorcise the demons that had supposedly taken over their bodies by living in the region dominated religiously by the blasphemous Christian Gnostic religion of Catharism. Author's note - The following is based on an actual incredibly tragic occurrence in western history that has conveniently been forgotten. Please feel free to look up Cathars of Lanbuedoc and Beziers genocide. You won't believe what you'll read. All characters depicted in this work are 18 years of age or older. The words slave and girl are used in a BDSM manner. Thus they're used interchangeably with women, woman and lady. There is in fact historical evidence that at least some Beziers women were abducted by their conquerors and became sex slaves. This book graphically...
