

Hawk Ridge: Minnesota's Birds of Prey (Hardback)

By Laura Erickson

University of Minnesota Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Betsy Bowen (illustrator). 241 x 206 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Was Caesar like the eagle because of his aquiline (from aquila, for eagle in Latin) nose, or does the eagle seem imperial because of his Caesar-like beak? Does the sharp vision of a hawk-eyed observer have any basis in nature? And what the heck is kettling to a bird-watcher, or, for that matter, a bird? Raptors have captured the imagination from time immemorial and have an especially rich history in Minnesota. The ancient peoples whose pictographs adorn the rock faces of Lake Superior's North Shore may well have witnessed the first hawk movements along Lake Superior the same annual migration that today draws as many as twenty thousand people to Duluth's Hawk Ridge. These birds, passing through in astounding numbers, are among the hawks and accipiters, buteos and harriers, eagles and ospreys pictured and profiled in detail in this book. Written by one of Minnesota's best-known bird authorities, with images by one of the state's favorite illustrators, Hawk Ridge is as fun as it is informative. It introduces the state's raptors, from...
