The Psychedelic Reader: Classic Selections from The Psychedelic Review: T

By Davis, Erik, Introduction by Leary, Timothy, Editor. Metzner, Ralph, Editor. Weil, Gunther M., Editor.

Citadel. 1 Paperback(s), 2007. soft. Book Condition: New. Over half a century ago, a Swiss chemist inadvertently ingested the experimental compound LSD. Subsequently, the first proponents of psychedelics were scientists who fully expected the radically psychoactive chemicals to revolutionize mainstream culture. They embarked on exhaustive research into the chemistry of mind expansion, work largely rendered moot by the Controlled Substances Act of 1970. The Psychedelic Reader was founded in 1963 as a serious journal dedicated to the study of both natural and synthesized psychoactive substances, and the 16 articles collected here are by such contributors as Alan Watts, Timothy Leary, Julian Huxley, and Ralph Metzner. 240.
