

Moving with a Purpose: Developing Programs for Preschoolers of All Abilities (Paperback)

By Renee McCall, Diane Craft

Human Kinetics Publishers, United States, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 276 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Moving With a Purpose is much more than a wonderful collection of movement games and activities for preschool-age children. It's also an easy-to-use guide to building movement programs in which every child thrives, including those with special needs. The book's 15 chapters are packed with information that's so well presented, you'll be able to put it to use immediately even if you have no experience teaching movement programs. Part I explains why movement is essential for preschoolers' optimum development. You'll learn to use the authors' child-centered approach, which emphasizes learning experiences that are child initiated and teacher facilitated. This approach enables each child to achieve specific goals and objectives that benefit them most. You'll learn what to teach and how to teach it as well as how to observe and assess children's movements. In Part II you'll find 54 field-tested and proven games and activities, developed over more than 15 years of teaching preschoolers. You can use them anywhere, even if space, time and equipment are limited. Each game and activity description...

Reviews

The best book I've ever read. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. I realized this publication from my dad and I advised this book to understand.

-- Raina Simonis

Extensive guideline! It's this kind of very good study. It really is full of knowledge and wisdom I discovered this book from my dad and I encouraged this publication to understand.
