Excerpt from George Washington a Character Sketch The name and fame of Washington are immortal. When all due allowance is made for hero-worship, his is a superlative worth. To him rightly belongs the place of pre-eminence among colonial leaders. The colonies could, indeed, boast of many men of conspicuous ability and unswerving patriotism, men of affairs, men of genius for finance and government, but none of them fulfilled the requirements of a popular hero as did Washington. His is an all-round greatness that none of his contemporaries had. There were other patriots of Washington's time who were truly great and noble, whose services to their country are gratefully remembered, but his is an incomparable glory. His was a devotion to a sacred cause that counted not the cost, and his was an enthusiasm tempered by judgment. His is a character that stands the test of time. His was a moral grandeur, joined with practical wisdom, never surpassed among the most renowned figures in the world's history. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands...
