Programm, 110 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: This Dissertation aims to assess the effectiveness and suitability of European regulation in respect to E-Commerce. Taking the European Lisbon Strategy as set out in 2000 as a starting point, this paper examines whether Europe is on the right track to becoming the most competitive and dynamic knowledge-based economy () by 2010 . Hereby, the scope of this paper is limited to E-Commerce only as one essential part of a knowledge-based economy and an e-ready Europe. After outlining the special nature of E-Commerce, the rationale behind regulation and the historical background of European regulation in this field, this paper concentrates on four issues where the EU has become active in regulating E-Commerce, namely, the essential prerequisite of an existing e-infrastructure , e-signatures, privacy and consumer protection. The European approach to each of these issues is assessed to reveal its strengths and...
