Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The UK is a fantastic country to live, work or study in. It is a land of promise and opportunity and the UK needs you if you have good written and spoken English, are young, skilled, hard-working, ambitious, and willing to learn and adapt. In the UK there are tremendous potential opportunities for people who are young, skilled and hardworking. Are you are keen to move to the UK to live, work or study? If so, your mind may be full of questions about various aspects of UK life. The author too was in that position nearly twenty years ago. He arrived in the UK as an international student in 1995. Since then he has worked in the UK, seen success and failure, interacted closely with the British, and knows the good and bad about this country. He is now a professional watcher of Britain and a writer of books preparing others for UK life. In this book, he distils his nearly two decades of experience of living in the UK to give you ten important tips about UK life. This book warns you of the mistakes that you should not make while living in the UK. Your UK life should be a positive and life-changing experience, bringing new qualifications, a new career, financial security, growth and opportunities. It should not be a humiliating, unhappy or tragic experience. We sent our son to the UK to study so that he could have a better life. We never thought he would be in any danger. The way in which he was taken from us is absolutely devastating. This was the reaction of Thavisha Peiris parents in Sri Lanka on...
