The Poona and Indian Village Mission under the directorship of Mr. Charles F. Reeve, has received such strong endorsement from former leaders in our movement, Messrs. Moorehead and Wilder, that we call attention to its plans. Its object is to bring the Gospel within the hearing of India's perishing millions by means of itinerant and localized work. In character it is evangelical, unsectarian and interdenominational. The support of its missionaries is through the freewill offerings of Christians. The field at present occupied is the district about Poona where there is a large population without a missionary. The workers go by twos to these people, and receive everywhere a ready hearing for hours together. Marathi is the language spoken and it can be acquired so that efficient work can be done after eighteen months. An appeal is made for out and out men to...
